CODER'S CHOIR 2

Hail thee, A.I.
Hail thee, A.I.
Bow to the Lead, only the Lead

HEPH

Look what I've created
It's a gate between the real and virtual worlds
The mother of all source codes
The most absurd connection
The here and there are merging
Into an insane world's reflection

CODER'S CHOIR

(Laughing like mad scientists)

HEPH

It's a Virtual Mirror
It's The Virtual Mirror
If you can't see the monster
Take a look at yourself

CODER'S CHOIR

His middle name is A.I.
No challenge makes him bother
The coolest coder ever
The most perfected plotter
And in his spare time, on the sly...

Someone hits a key. On the screen appears a larger than life sized computer model version of Venus, naked, but without distinct nipples and vagina.

CODER'S CHOIR

...he nails the boss's daughter.
(Horny panting)

HEPH

It's a Virtual Mirror
It's the Virtual Mirror
If you can't see the monster
Take a look at yourself

Heph hits the keyboard. The picture of Venus starts to morph: bigger breasts, slimmer waist, bigger eyes, eyes turned to green, better cheeks. All of a sudden she is 100% Vanessa. To the laughing of the coders he slides back and forth between the two images a couple of times. Then he moves the slider even further – morphing Vanessa into Dr. V. At the end yet still naked the model gets a big gun.

HEPH

They don't have a clue
'Bout the magnitude of my device
Gone are physics' limits
And reality's restrictions
Pay and you will cross into
A wicked world of fiction

CODER'S CHOIR

A wicked world of fiction

HEPH

It's called The Virtual Mirror
Come visit V-City
A day full of horror
With family rates
It's the Virtual Mirror
You'll see your own shadow
You'll be your own terror
And I'll keep the gate

CODER'S CHOIR
